OFFICE MEMORANDUM

No.CDD.8/2023/2. – In continuation to the Department's Memo.No.CDD.122/2006/327, dated 9th November, 2017, the Guidelines for Utilisation of the interest accumulated under the State Corpus Fund placed with the State Rural Employment Society (SRES) are as under:

With few needs and demands that have come up which are of priority, and considering that these are not directly met under the ambit of MGNREGA, also considering the fact that Meghalaya is predominantly tribal in nature having unique requirements in the community, the following clause are placed on the utilisation of the State Corpus Fund:

1. Utilisation of the State Corpus Fund Interest at the State Nodal Agency - State Rural Employment Society (SRES):
 - a. As a temporary loan: The principal amount along with the accumulated interest of the State Corpus Fund being a revolving fund may be utilized for the implementation of the programme of MGNREGA and PMAY-G whenever there is fund constraint under these Rural Development programmes to meet the committed expenses during an emergent circumstances. The amount transferred from the State Corpus Fund for this purpose is entirely refundable and is to be recouped whenever fund for the programmed) is received from the Central or State Government.
 - b. As a Non-refundable grant: The interest accumulated under the State Corpus can be utilised towards the operational expenses of SRES with due approval of the Governing Body. The amount that can be utilised for this purpose is from the accumulated interest only without affecting the principal amount of the State Corpus Fund.
2. Utilisation of the State Corpus Fund along with Interest accrued for other Rural Development Projects:
 - a. The State Corpus Fund along with the interest accrued thereon can also be utilised for the implementation of other rural development projects duly recommended by the Chief Minister's Secretariat or the Planning Department.

The recommended projects shall include construction of suspension bridges, community halls & auditoriums, retaining walls or creation of any infrastructure and allied activities aimed at developing rural community which are not covered under Mahatma Gandhi National Rural Employment Guarantee Scheme (MGNREGS).
 - b. Whenever the Corpus Fund (excluding interest accrued) is utilised, the Planning Department, Government of Meghalaya will recoup the amount to the State Corpus Fund.
 - c. The projects proposed by either the Chief Minister's Secretariat or the Planning Department will be scrutinized and examined by SRES.
 - d. The Principal Secretary/ Commissioner & Secretary/Secretary of Community & Rural Development Department will be the authorizing authority for according approval of the projects) upon submission of the proposal by the Mission Director, SRES.
 - e. The approved project(s) will be implemented by SRES which includes monitoring and inspection of the projects, maintaining and recording all statutory & financial books of accounts.
